

Get to Know Our Speakers:

June 8

Lucretia Bowman is Vice President of Recovery Services for Cincinnati's City Gospel Mission. She founded "Having the Courage to Change," the Mission's recovery program for women. She also leads the "Exodus" recovery program for men. Mrs. Bowman is a licensed pastor with more than 20 years of experience leading programs that empower men and women to discover their true identity and recover from addiction, abuse and incarceration. Lucretia is also the author of Breaking the Cycle of Self Abuse, a book sharing her journey. She will speak on the topic of Leaning Into Transformation. www.lucretiabowman.com.

July 13

Kay Harms' passion, calling and thrill is serving women in the body of Christ. The wife of a pastor, she has the unique opportunity to touch the lives of many women in the church and community. God has gifted Kay in many areas of ministry. She is a writer, having contributed to popular Christian magazines, writes a blog at DressedforMyDay.com, and has authored books and Bible study lessons. Her Studies are written specifically for a woman's heart. Kay speaks to women's groups, retreats, conferences, banquets, etc., always bringing a special message from God's Word. She enjoys mentoring women who are younger - - in faith and in age. Kay will speak to OutPost about Biblical Meditation and Transformation. www.kayharms.com

August 10

Marie Golden is a native-born Tennessean and former foster child who was adopted as a teenager along with her four siblings, who then moved to several Places within the U.S. In January 2016, her journey to the Father became her ministry. Through many years of struggle, trauma and abuse, God called her to begin God's Rays of Hope Ministry. She speaks to women and men, offering them encouragement, support, and tools to walk through their darkest days into His hope for His glory. Marie will speak on the topic of Restoration.